

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT JOHN SCHLITT

MARCH 7th, 1980

A suite in the St. Louis Holiday Inn

After 7 years together on the road, John Schlitt, one of the Midwest's most acclaimed and accomplished rock and roll singers, announced his retirement from Head East. —————

He left behind him the legacy of one of the most successful and prestigious musical careers in the history of Midwestern rock and the glitter of selling over one million albums.

But now John Schlitt emerges in an even more powerful band, JOHNNY, leading a whole school of American rock into the eighties. Just as he did when he musically seduced over thirty-thousand people at the 1979 IOWA JAM.
